

EARTH FOCUS
FOUNDATION

2048 PROJECT
HUMANITY'S WRITTEN AGREEMENT TO LIVE TOGETHER

“Drafting an International Bill of Human Rights” debate Programme

*December 10, 2010
CICG, rue Varembe, Genève
9h -12 h and 13 h- 16 h*

Morning

How can we make the Universal Declaration of Human Rights relevant for the issues of today?

- 9:00 The Universal Dream: drafting the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by Mishana Hosseinioun and professors Bruna Molina and Alfred de Zayas
- 10:15 Break
- 10:30 Human Rights in 2048- an enforceable bill of human rights and introduction to 2048 Project

Afternoon

If "humanitarian intervention" is an emerging principle of international law, why has it not been applied in Gaza?

- 13:00 Introduction from Professor Bruna Molina for the role playing debate on the case study of the Israeli attack on the Humanitarian Flotilla in May of 2010
- 13:15 Introduction from role playing individuals and commencement of the debate
- 14:15 Break
- 14:30 Continuation of the debate

We would like to give a special thanks to Professor Bruna Molina, 2048 Project Geneva representative, Professor Alfred de Zayas, professor of International law at Geneva School of Diplomacy , Mishana Hosseinioun and Professor Kirk Boyd for their involvement, support and participation in the conference.